

Pipe Dream Friday Sept. 15, 1972

The Experimental Television Center located at 164 Court St. is planning to exhibit works at Everson Museum in Syracuse from September 19 through October 1. Tapes produced by people who work at the center will be on view as well as "Video Works" by Kenneth Dominick, Coordinator of the Center and an original construction by Ralph Hocking, Director. Several live video events will take place as well at the show. Nam June Paik will perform a live video event and Charlotte Moorman will perform in Hocking's "Video Bed". "Europe on a Tape a Day", and "Marcel Duchamp—John Cage Chess Match" will be shown by Shigeko Kubota.
